Vedette Directory,

UTAH.

Area, 100, 382 square miles—Population 90,000.

The Capital, Great Salt Lake City, (Population, 17,000,) situate on the great highway westward, in the grand centre of the golden circle comprising Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona. The City is one of the most beautiful in the Union, and the largest between St. Louis and Sacramento. Its scenery of mountains is majestic, and its view of islands and Lake is peerlessly picturesque.

The City proper is a square of three miles each side, and contains 260 blocks, of 10 acres each, (each divided into 8 lots,) and 4 public squares. Its level streets, running due east and west, and north and south, are 128 feet wide, with shade trees along either sidewalk, and living streams of water flowing by both sides of every street, to irrigate the fruit trees and gardens.

The Territory is divided into twenty counties, the towns of which range from 6,000 to 600 population.

Colorado Mining Items.

The following items in brief, are from the Black Hawk Mining Journal of Jan. 13th: The Monitor Mill, having secured a supply of water by digging a well, started their machinery again to-day.—Everybody in their vicinity is confident that they will now go on, and make it pay.—Col. Crosby has a very good show for ore, both in Gregory and Foot & Simmons. We hear also that Mr. Gould, for the Sterling Company, is getting out beautiful ore on the Bobtail.—Mr. Armor and Mr. Crosby are likewise "doing that same" on the Gunnell.—A private letter from Philadelphia says that the Macedon Silver Mining Company of Nevada, have on exhibition there a great lot of ore from different lodes and depths in the State of Nevada, but that none of it equals the specimens of silver ores there on exhibition from Colorado. The writer is perfectly reliable.—Rob. Teats has rented the Excelsior Mill (old Dodge Mill) to the Crow Gold Mining Company, a corporation formed last winter by Mr. Andrews on the Gunnell, Norwegian, Doe, and other lodes. Mr. Andrews started to come and put the works in operation, but after reaching Chicago, was never of. The Company subsequently appointed Charley Crosby, brother of the Crosby of Crosby & Thompson, to come out and superintend for them. He will put up a Crosby & Thompson furnace, right at the mill for the owners of the mill, of which he will have the use until May under his lease. The masonry is already laid up, the cylinders setting.

BUSINESS OF THE MINERS' CONVENTION.—Speaking of what the Convention of Miners which met at Sacramento on the 17th inst., should do, the Tuolumne Courier says:

The value of our mines would not be enhanced by fulsome puffery, but fling the "frozen truth" with telling force, and arouse the sleepy dollars that repose supinely in the bankers' vaults, while our untold wealth cries aloud to be released from the bowels of our hills and mountains—their aid is all we need to increase almost immeasurable our present yield of gold, and revive the lively times of years gone by. A grand feature in the business official paper to lay before Congress, protesting against the indiscriminate granting of lands to railroad companies, and set forth that if grants already made are confirmed by the present Congress, endless litigation and disputo will ensue.

ATTENTION BATTALION.

WHAT everybody says must be true, and all agree, that the best place in Utah Territory to obtain a square meal is at

Forscutt's Union Restaurant,

Camp Douglas.

Officers and Gentlemen residing at Camp Douglas have already learned where they can obtain the best board on the most advantageous terms and patronize this house, extensively, but there is room for more.

Soldiers and transient residents will find a well filled table and courteous civility ever awaiting them, and of which they can avail themselves at all hours of the day. jan17-tf

The Daily Union Vedette.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 27, 1866.

Railroad Progress.

The engineer of the Pacific Railroad has located the line to Fort Riley, one hundred and twenty-five miles west of Leavenworth. It is expected to have the road in running order to that point by July 1, 1866. The citizens of Omaha are also alive to their interests, and are rapidly pushing a road from that place, expecting to be in running order to Columbus by next May, and probably before winter sets in Fort Kearney will have a rail connection. The completion of the road across Iowa will give travelers and freight a continous rail conveyance from Kearney to all parts of the country east of the Missouri river. It is understood that next season Forts Riley and Kearney will be made distributing depots for Government supplies intended for the Plains. Atchison has already more than twenty miles of road graded and is pushing the work rapidly. All parties are aiming to reach the point designated by Congress as soon as possible. Colorado friends are giving a practical result to the proposed road from Central to Golden City, having at the same time a great and abiding faith in that route being the best for the main line.

The Pacific Central of California, despite the many obstacles thrown in its way, is steadily gaining ground to the eastward, and bravely climbing the Sierras with an energy as resistless as fate.

We hope soon to witness the commencement of grading east and west from this city. There is an abundance of labor here for that purpose.

We Think So, Decidedly.

Amusing, to say the least, is the perfect sang froid with which the editor of the Telegraph discourses of the rights of "American citizens," and the religious privileges guaranteed by the Constitution. On reading some of the late lucubrations one would be pardoned for thinking that the fellow actually considered himself "native and to the manor born." We are charitable enough to suppose that he is laboring under the hallucination of thinking himself fully capable of expounding the Constitution of the United States, and competent, not only to advise a Territorial Governor as to his rights and privileges, but to dictate to Congress its true policy towards Utah! The other day he threatened that if the Mormons were driven from the Territory they would go into one of the States and elect Brigham Young Governor! We respectfully suggest to this learned expounder of Constitutional law that both he and a large majority of his "h'amen" brethren had better take out their naturalization papers before they attempt to exercise the elective franchise outside of Utah. It is a well known fact that not one in a hundred of these same Constitutional-expounding Polygamists is a citizen of the United States, neither by birth nor adoption. Indeed, some among them are even now threatening to claim as British subjects the protection of Great Britain, in the event of any difficulty with the General Government! In fact, their ideas of whom they belong to are considerably mixed. They have about the same relation to government that their own offspring do to parentage. Having a general idea of existence it is extremely difficult to tell by whose authority — brothers and sisters of the same family representing every nationality of the old world, mixed some times with a decided indication of the copper-colored aborigines of the new! The Americanism that could be regenerated out of such a conglomerate mass would be of questionable quality, and especially dangerous if, as the aforesaid Editor intimates, they finally succeed in making "Brigham President of the United States!" We might be a little startled, in view of the possibility of such a contingency, were it not for the idea lately broached in Congress of requiring naturalized citizens to be able to read the Constitution of the United States intelligently before being allowed the privilege of the elective franchise. The editor of the Telegraph had best look to his qualifications before attempting to vote for Brigham Young, or any other man!

High Price of Paper.—Within the past few weeks, says the San Francisco Examiner, newspaper has gone up in price a-kiting in this city, owing to a scarcity of the article in the market. One German paper, we learn, thinks of decreasing its size, fearful that it may be compelled to suspend publication entirely if it does not. One newspaper publisher informs us that he pays $9 per ream for paper now that cost him only $4 a short time ago. Several cargoes of paper are on the way here round the Horn; but they may not reach port for a long time, or they may be wrecked. If any accident should happen, nearly all the newspapers in the city and State will be compelled to suspend publication.

That's nothing to the cost of printing paper in this city, as it has cost us for the half year past. It was almost impossible to buy it here at 60 to 80 cents per lb.—or about $32 per ream. What we are using, this winter, stands us 45 cents per lb., and the stage freight from Denver additional,—nearly $1 50 per lb., for the white paper! But, we were unfortunate in having our train of paper plundered on the plains, last fall; and will not "stop the press," no matter how counts the costs.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, Jan. 23.

In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Conness presented the protest of the California Legislature against the sale of mineral lands.

Mr. Pomeroy introduced a bill incorporating the Colorado River and Utah Transportation Co., capital one hundred thousand dollars, establishing a line of steamers on the Colorado river to connect with the ocean steamers, and an express freight line for Salt Lake. One section of the bill provides for improving the navigation of the Colorado river, dredging and widening the channel, and grants alternate sections of land each side of the river from the southern boundary of the United States to the head of navigation; another section empowers the corporation to construct about four hundred miles of wagon road to connect the head of navigation with Salt Lake City and Prescott, the capital of Arizona Territory.

Washington, Jan. 23.

In the Senate to day, Hendricks from Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill to establish an additional land office in Oregon, which, at the request of Williams, was passed.

Wilson reported a bill to sell postage stamps through private parties, in order to supply the southern states temporarily. Morrill, of Maine, introduced a bill repealing the incorporation of Washington and Georgetown, as cities, and appointing municipal commissioners under the President.

The Senate confirmed Charles B. Downs, of Iowa, as associate Justice of Washington Territory; also Geo. J Clarke, Postmaster at Los Angeles, Cal. The President has appointed Capt. Nicholas Smith, of Kansas, Minister resident to Greece, being the first minister appointed to that municipality.

HOUSE.

Mr. Stevens moved the previous question on the amendment to the Constitution, reported yesterday, fixing the basis of representation, but his motion was only parliamentary and held open for debate, but not for amendment. During the debate to-day, Messrs. Orth, of Indiana, and Sloan, of Wisconsin, explained the propositions they desired to offer.

Mr. Brooks, of New York, also made a demonstration, causing to be read a petition for "female suffrage."

Washington, Jan. 25.

A resolution was offered directing the Committee on Commerce to report a law, remunerating owners for property, thrown overboard to save life and shipwreck. Higby, of Cal., made a speech against the constitutional amendment fixing a basis of representation.

Bingham, of Ohio, advocated the amendment, saying the committee have under consideration another constitutional amendment, which looks to giving power to Congress to enforce, in behalf of every citizen in every State, rights which were granted to him from the beginning, but which have unhappily been disregarded, simply for want of power in Congress to enforce them.

GENERAL NEWS.

Chicago, Jan. 23.

The Washington correspondent of the Detroit Tribune gives a different version of Judge Field's infernal machine. He says the Judge received a small packet, carefully done up, about the size of, and like an ordinary ambrotype case. He proceeded to undo it, supposing it to be a picture. In undoing it, he noticed it opened very hard. Just then the suspicion flashed across his mind there might be something wrong about it, and he threw the package against the wall, and in striking, it broke open, and disclosed an ingeniously constructed infernal machine. The package contained several conical balls, somewhat like the fixed ammunition for the Spencer rifle, but so arranged as to be discharged by application of fire. The construction of the infernal machine was such that when opened a match would be ignited on a piece of prepared card-board, and, communicating fire to the ammunition, would scatter death in every direction.

Washington, Jan, 23.

The marriage of Mrs. Stephen A. Douglas and Bv't. Brig. Gen. Williams took place this evening, at nine o'clock, at the residence of the bride; the ceremonies were performed by Rev. Father Lynch, of the Catholic Church.

Information has been received here that Richard H. Coolidge, Surgeon of U. S., died yesterday in North Carolina, where he was on duty.

The Senate will probably vote on the passage of the Freedmen's Bureau bill to-morrow unless Mr. Sumner concludes to make a speech.

The Navy Department has a letter from Com. Goldsboro, saying the rebel privateer, Shenandoah, may shortly be expected. The Commodore will probably detail a small crew to bring her across the Atlantic.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 24.

The joint resolutions in regard to the Constitutional amendment were discussed in the Senate to-day, and passed by 13 to 8. The House passed a resolution directing one hundred guns to be fired to-morrow in honor of the event.

New York, Jan. 25.

The last steamer brings news of the death of Frederika Bremer.

A San Francisco correspondent of the New York Times writes that a dollar in gold in California goes about as far as a greenback dollar in New York.

It [illegible] summer [illegible] in Colorado [illegible] New York [illegible] process [illegible] gold and silver, which [illegible] Jas. E. Lyon, formerly of Central city, Colorado, as its enterprising agitator. He returned to Colorado, set up some works and has prospect of a perfect success, as soon as all his plans are carried out. The following from the Black Hawk Journal of the 18th, concerning this subject, will be interesting to our mining readers:

Mr. Johnson of the smelting works stopped in a few moments, last evening, and quite reassured us with regard to their operations. They are getting along just as fast and as favorably as they expected. Their enterprise is a huge one and they are pioneers, and only those who have tried it can imagine the difficulties which spring up on every hand to obstruct such enterprises. They seem, here, to have been scrimped for water, a difficulty now mostly overcome. Their blast cylinders do not work well, and it is possible they may have to put in blowers. Their furnaces, capacity was out of proportion to their ore dressing machinery. The bundle for pyrites was started yesterday, and the jiggers for lead ores are being added too. Their crushing machinery was not at hand, and they have had to pick it up wherever they could. It is now assuming a tolerable shape. Their first tests froze during the cold snap of last month, and became imperfect. For the most of their labor, it has first to be taught, and here again is a great source of detention. With the newly arrived and shortly to arrive from their works on Staten Island, however this difficulty will soon be overcome. The public are familiar with the fact that in building these works, they were badly disappointed in the make of their fire-brick, and that they have proved what was only believed—that Colorado has both the material and skill for as good an article of fire-brick as is made in the world. We mention these things to satisfy the impatience of the public and also to give foreigners an idea of how detentions inevitably arise in the inauguration of such enterprises.

But they are well satisfied with their success. The result, so far, has precisely justified their expectations and estimates. Their Scotch Hearths (with a proper blast) are equal to the production of 2 1-2 tons of metallic lead a day.—Their reverberatory furnaces work well. They were started just about Christmas and one of them has already made its bottom; that is to say, absorbed from twenty to thirty tons of lead, and the charges begin to run off with due regularity and freedom. The other one is going through the same process favorably. One cupel furnace has been running a few days; the other is ironed and ready to start as soon it is needed. So far, beyond lead ores, they have only used Gregory tailings, and their first button indicates about $100 a ton as the value of the material treated. Mr. Johnson thinks they have out already, in available shape, eight or ten thousand dollars' worth of bullion, and that they will henceforth be able to meet their expenses without drawing on anybody. The entire works will doubtless consume not far from twenty cords of wood per day. This at seven dollars a cord would amount to $50,000 a year. The Gould and Curry mill and mine in Nevada consume 13,000 cords a year, worth $15 a cord — $200,000. No large mining works can be carried on without expense—the question is, will the profits of the business warrant it. The average yield of the Savage Company's ores (state of Nevada) for 1864 was $14 per ton, the cost of mining and reduction, 80 per cent. The average yield of all the Comstock ores is not far from $40 per ton, the cost of mining and reduction, about $32. The average yield of all ores (dressed) that will ever be smelted at Lyonsville will not, it is safe to say, fall below $100 per ton. The cost of reduction—the smelters do not propose to mine—will certainly not exceed $30 a ton. Now, suppose they purchase their ores at an equal cost—thirty dollars, which would leave at least a profit of twenty for the miner— they have still a clear profit of $40 a ton. We believe the result, though the coming years, will more than justify these figures. We are glad to be able to state that Lyon's works will be duplicated as soon as possible, and that other parties are already preparing to follow in his wake.

Mining Failures.—The following from the Colorado Mining Journal, respecting the recent failure of the Perigo Mining Company, of Gold Dirt, Colorado, shows the secret of several, if not all, the mining company failures of the west:

We can't help noticing an incident, now occurring, by which there hangs a tale with a moral. The Perigo Company have shut down, as our readers well know. They have spent, so we are informed, $225,000 and have neither a mill nor any other buildings of consequence, have not ten tons of ore out either, nor their mine in any better shape than when they bought it. Two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars gone and comparatively nothing to show for it! Such management would disgust a Christian with his religion, if it could enter into it in any way. This vast sum of money has been chiefly expended in huge machinery and its transportation to Colorado from New York. Howell Crushers, which have cost in all little less than $4,000 each, are being broken up and sold for less than $100 for scrap iron, to pay the dishonored drafts of the Company's Colorado agents. Verily the fewer of such institutions we can have the better for us. We rejoice that they have shut down and sincerely hope they will sell out. It would be impossible for one of the most valuable properties in Colorado to fall into worse hands.

Let us remark the weather. It has been most favorable since last April.—We had a sprinkle of snow and a moderately cold snap about the end of October; then, mild weather up to the middle of December, with no snow. For about ten days thereafter it was cold, with three or four inches of snow, when it came out warm and delightful, and has so continued. Surely, we have cause for congratulation.—Black Hawk, Col., Journal, 18th.

Interesting matter on every page.

STEWART, the New York dry-goods prince, owns four theatres.

THE newly-married Lady Dudley's bridal veil cost in London $10,000.

WANTED.—A power to regulate the "eight-hour movement."

MARRIED.—The telegrams to-day tell us of the marriage of the distinguished Mrs. Stephen A. Douglas to Brevet Brig. Gen. Williams, at Chicago.

THE Omaha Republican, of January, 24th, says a dispatch, states that the Union Pacific Railroad is laying track to the west at the rate of half a mile a day.

M. D. Conway, in his last letter to The Round Table, says: "I saw Dickens the other day. Time is beginning to tell on him; the crows have left, plentifully, their tracks on his brow; he has always an anxious look."

PROPOSALS FOR LUMBER, &C.—Public attention is directed to advertisement by Capt. Stover, A. Q. M., U. S. Vols., at this city, for proposals for "lumber, &c.; said bids to be opened on Saturday, Feb. 3d, at 12 M.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Religious (Christian) services will be held to-morrow morning and evening, at the usual hours, in Independence Hall, by Rev. Norman McLeod; and at Camp Douglas Hall, in the afternoon. Citizens and strangers are cordially invited to attend these church services.

MR. WM. NOWLAN, banker of Montana, got into Denver, recently, bringing a trunk full of gold quartz specimens and $130,000 in dust. Montana is a rich country, but she is a great way off. If it wasn't for the Pacific Ocean, however, doubtless she would one day come to be considered as "down East." So says the Black Hawk Journal.

FENIAN GRAND BALL.—Lovers of amusement and, especially, those interested in the cause of Fenianism and fatherland, are notified by advertisement elsewhere, that there will be given at Camp Douglas Hall a grand Fenian Brotherhood ball and festival on the evening of Thursday, the 1st of February next.

FAILED.—U. H. Crosby of Chicago, owner of Crosby's Opera House in that city on Wednesday made a general assignment of his property for the benefit of his creditors. His liabilities are between $400,000 and $500,000. The Opera House is advertised to be sold on the 5th of March under a trust deed. This speaks illy of Chicago's "operatic" enterprise.

HEAVY HAULING.—The Stockton, Cal. Herald gives the following account of the "big hauls," made between the copper region and the Slough City: "Two teams of fourteen mules each belonging to A. Blossom, arrived with 20,000 pounds of Union copper ore, drawn by each team. Such loads are, unprecedented for this season of the year.

THERE'S a certain settlement of Mormons not many miles from here, in which a "gentile" has the VEDETTE come to him by every morning's mail; and, no sooner than it is thrown out, from ten to fifteen of the neighbors hasten to his house to read it over, "line upon line," and argument upon argument. Our patron told us, privately, that the more intelligent, thinking of the settlement are already "on the fence" and leaning rapidly to anti-polygamy and anti-imposition of their one-man power.

WONDERS OF CHEMISTRY.—Aquafortis and the air we breathe are made of the same materials. Linen and sugar, and spirits of wine, are so much alike in their composition, that an old shirt can be converted into its own weight in sugar, and the sugar into spirits of wine. Wine is made of two substances, one of which is the cause of almost all combination of burning, and the other will burn with more rapidity than anything in nature. The famous Peruvian bark, so much used to strengthen stomachs, and the poisonous principle of opium, are found of the same materials.

Gen. Grant is known to be a fancier of horseflesh, and this is the story of his last purchase: About a fortnight since, as the Lieutenant-General was driving over from Georgetown to Washington, a butcher's cart drawn by a grey horse came up alongside at a fast gait. Now the General has a weakness for fast horses and for fast traveling, so he spoke to his horse "Cincinnatus," expecting to give the meat wagon the go-by easily. But the gray nag pelted away, and although the Lieutenant-General and "Cincinnatus" tried to "fight it out on that line," they were beaten in going one block, and distanced before having reached the second cross street. From that moment the conqueror of the rebellion determined to own the nag that had out-trotted "Cincinnatus," and all of his personal friends were soon enlisted in the movement to purchase this unknown steed.

THE 1st Mich. Cavalry are to have a social dance at Camp Douglas Hall next Friday evening, February 2d; Messrs. Alfred Forest and A. [illegible], Managers. Dancing parties are the order of the night, these days.

SACRILEGIOUS.—The San Francisco correspondent of the Gold Hill News quotes Solomon, who says: "The snow is beautiful in its season," and then says:

But Solomon was not a stone quarrier, and got his ideas of the snow from seeing it as I now see it, and always wish to see it, from a long distance below the point where water congeals in the open air. Had he been a Washoe mule-driver, hauling goods from Dutch Flat over the Sierra Nevadas in January, he would have given us a different account of the matter. I'll gamble on that.

FROM FORT HALL.—A private letter from Camp Lander, near old Fort Hall, between here and Virginia, Montana, says the winter is severe in that section of the "hill country." It says the troops and the people generally in Idaho, and even Oregon and elsewhere north, are indignant at the outrages on their country's statute in Mormondom, and that, the word being given, "it would not be long before a mighty force of miners, soldiers, volunteers and everybody from the north and west and all sides, would run down here to avenge past wrongs inflicted by those polygamists, until there wouldn't be a 'grease spot' of 'em left." We know it; but bide your time, boys.

SANDWICH ISLANDS.—The Sandwich Isles are two thousand one hundred miles from San Francisco, four thousand eight hundred from Panama, nearly five thousand miles from Canton. Thus it will be seen that their geographical position is highly favored, being equi-distant from the great Asiatic markets and the American shores of the Pacific, from the gold-fields of Australia, and New Zealand, and the placers of Frazer River, and half way between Japan and Acapulco, or between the Amoor river and Valparaiso. They may be called the halting place in the commerce of the earth, since north, south, east or west of this group at any season one can see the ocean whitened with a hundred sail.

THE Telegraph man, Thursday morning in an article headed, "Fires Prevailing," speaking of "the serious increase of crime in the various States, of late," says:

"To such a pitch is this arrived, even among high and refined circles, that at the present time social matters in the States present a truly pitiable spectacle to the gaze of European nations—murders of every grade; robberies, house, highway and street; seduction, fornication, adultery, whoredom, abortion and divorce, so common as scarcely to be blushed at, but rather perpetrated partly for the acquisition of an emblazoned notoriety in the newspapers. * * * * *

"Where are all these things tending? If the answer is, onwards, it most certainly cannot be upwards also."

Bah! your hypocritical, feigned sorrow is perfectly sickening! You might have given far more comprehensive details of the "increase of crime," by a little research, nearer home, where, however, it is mostly due to the abominable religious (?) system which protects it. The "highly moral" "quill driver" has probably forgotten how the streets of Jerusalem were kept clean. "People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones!" That query of his is pertinent. If his conclusions are correct, there is very little probability of any of the "Saints" being elevated to "Abraham's bosom!"

CHICORY.—This species of weed is [illegible] exchange, to improve coffee. One third chicory (or sugary) and two-thirds coffee make a splendid drink.

MONTANA ITEMS.—The Post of Jan. 13th, is received. It says the weather in and around Virginia City has been mild for mid-winter. Con Orem is out in another "card," challenging Patsey Marley for a fight four months from now, for $5000 in gold. Poor business, and pitiable pertinacity in pugilism. The Catholic Church interest seems to be taking the lead in Virginia. Major Upson, Indian Agent, is sick; Col. Nelson had a huge rabbit hunt. The Virginia Police Court docket is "distressingly dull." The great excitement of the day is the discovery of rich mines on Sun River, beyond Fort Benton. Theatricals are tolerable. Sunday is now strictly observed up north. Two men named Dudewick and Bunn were frost bitten in the Gallatin Valley. Quartz milling is making splendid progress up in Summit. Dick [illegible], a Georgia miner, and formerly of Colorado, died at Helena on the 5th., from the effects of amputation of a leg. Salt Lake flour is $24 a hundred still, in "trade dust." Greenback currency is scarce and called for. Treasury notes are freely fetching ninety cents. Mr. David Pattee and Miss Emma Harris were harnessed together in the ties of wedlock, over in Bitter Root Valley. Mr. H. S. Mundy, who came to Montana with Prof. Eaton, died at the Delavan House, Virginia, on the 11th. He was from Seneca Falls, N. Y.

Notice,

IS hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between Elbridge Gurney and David T. Beals, under the name and style of Gurney & Co., became disolved on the 29th day of October, 1865, by the death of Mr. Elbridge Gurney, one of the members of said firm—the business of said firm at Nevada and Helena, in the Territory of Montana; at Great Salt Lake City, in the Territory of Utah; and at Idaho City, in the Territory of Idaho, is discontinued. No contracts entered into in the territories aforesaid at any time hereafter in the name of, and for the old or new firm, will be valid unless made with our Agent, F. C. BROWN or with the undersigned. All persons having claims against the said firm, will present them at our house for payment.

I shall continue the business in which the late firm was engaged, at Virginia City, Montana, and shall supply patrons of our successors in the houses we have discontinued, with our goods as before. The style of the new firm will continue to be Gurney & Co.

DAVID T. BEALS.
